HER SONS IN NEW-YORK HOLD THEIR FIRST ANNUAL DINNER-THE GUESTS AND TOASTS.

The first annual dinner of the Society of the Sons of Oneida was held last night at the Hotel Savoy. Like the Ohio and the New-England societies, the Society of the Sons of Oneida is composed of self-exties in New-York, who find it necessary to come together occasionally to commiserate one another upon their separation from the region of their birth. Paradoxically, such gatherings are unusually enjoyable, and the Oneida dinner obeyed the rule. One feature of the dinner was the celebration of the centennial of the founding of Oneida County, a subject dwelt upon especially in the toast of President M. W. Stryker, of Hamilton College, who snoke upon "Historical Events Relating lege, who spoke upon "Historical Events Relating to Oneida County." A large number of prominent men were present. Justice Charles H. Truax, of the Supreme Court, who is president of the asso-ciation, acted as toustmaster of the evening Justice Truax spoke enthusiastically of Oneida County. where had been first unrolled, at Fort Stanwix, the American flag, and unrolled above the English flag (applause), and since that time it has never been beneath it. (Cheers.) Colonel Willett came back from the victory at Oriskany. He made a flag in accordance with the instructions from Congress that the fing should be red, white and blue, and the white came from the shirts of the soldiery, and the blue came from the cloak of a British captive, and the red came from the petitions of a woman. (Cheers.) And from that day to this Oneida County has been noted ever for its devotion to women."

(Applause.) In the absence of Governor Bushnell of Ohio the toastmaster took up the theme of his native sod. "What are to me," he said, "the waters of Israel, when there is to me an Oriskeny Creek?" He made other allusions to the picturesque nomen-

Mayor Thomas E. Kinney, of Utica, followed on "The City of Utica": Thomas L. James, ex-Post-master-General, spoke on "The Statesmen of Oneida County," and Judge Lewis J. Confan, formerly Mayor of Rome, spoke on "The City of Rome." Other toasts were "The Benen and Bar of Oneida County," by Justice William J. Gaynor, and "Our Country," by Justice William J. STRICKEN WHILE AT WORK.

ANDREW E. COLSON, OF THE SIXTH NATIONAL BANK, PROSTRATED BY A STROKE OF APOPLEXY.

Andrew E. Colson, cashier of the Sixth National Bank, at Thirty-third-st, and Broadway, was stricken by apoplexy at the bank on Monday afternoon. There were symptoms which indicated that his condition was critical, and he was taken to the New-York Hospital. The hospital authorities re-ported his condition as being favorable last night, and they said that if he continued to improve he would be out in a few weeks. Alexander H. Stevens, would be out in a few weeks. Alexander H. Stevens, president of the Sixth National Bank, said yesterday afternoon that he had just returned from a visit to the hospital, where he was told by the physician in charge that Mr. Colson's illness would probably not be serious, and that he would be in fair condition which three weeks. A prominent physician, who is in attendance on Mr. Colson, said he could promise an even better result than that. President Sievens said he felt very much encouraged, and hoped that Mr. Colson would be able to resume his duties before long.

Mr. Colson, who is sixty-three years of age, has been the cashler of the Sixth National Bank since 1809. He began his banking career as a bookkeeper and dincount clerk in the Bank of the Commonwealth. He went from there to the Sixth National lank. He lives at No. 200 Washington-ave., Brooklyo, and has a wife and three sons, one of whom is employed in the bank with his father.

WEST SIDE REPUBLICAN CLUB ELECTION.

A LIVELY CONTEST OVER A VACANCY ON THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The West Side Republican Club held its regular annual meeting for the election of officers for the The constitution of the ensuing year last night. club calls for the posting of names of candidates, if reported by the Committee on Nominations, for at least ten days previous to the voting. If the names of the candidates come from other sources than the Committee on Nominations, the rule provides that the names need be posted only five days. The committee posted the names of the regular nominees ten days ago, but between then and the needs of the regular nominees ten days ago, but between then and the needs of the regular meeting last night Frank B. Timothy resigned from the Executive Committee, and G. B. Lyon was nominated for the vacant place, his name ing posted five days previous to last night. The Noninating Committee's hands were tied, as it had already reported its candidates.

An effort was made at the meeting yesterday to nominate William H. Douglass to the place made vacant by Mr. Timothy's resignation. This led Mr. Lyon's adherents to protest vigorously on the ground that his nomination was illegal and con-trary to the constitution of the club. The committee repiled that this would have been true had the nomination been a regular one for an office, but as it was to fill a vacancy it was without the clause of the club's constitution calling for posting the

it was to fill a vacancy it was without the clause of the club's constitution calling for posting the names for ten days. John Proctor Clarke and James S. Lenmaier led the forces which upheld Mr. Douglass's nomination as regular, while ex-Police Justice Taintor and Alexander Caldwell took the opposite ground.

Before voting for the officers a resolution permitting the candidacy of Mr. Douglass was passed by a vote of 70 to 50. A resolution was also unanimously passed approving President McKinley's conduct in the present crisis with Spain. Mr. Douglass was nominated for the Assembly last year by the Clitzens Union, and many of his fellow-members have expressed the opinion that his candidacy "against the regular Republican nominees," enabled the Tammany candidate to win. On this account the fight was made over his nomination last night. J. Castree Williams and William M. Bennett, the regular nominee for member of the Executive Committee, were also rival candidates, there being the same opposition to Mr. Bennett, and for the same reason, as there was to Mr. Douglass. In all o...er nominations the two tickets were identical.

After wrangling for two hours the vote was taken and the following candidates declared elected: President, C. N. Bovee, Jr.; vice-presidents, S. Packard, Julius H. Seymour and Jonn Elderkin; secretaries, Henry C. Oleott and Le Roy D. Ball; treasurer, Aus@n M. Slawson: Executive Committee, to serve until 1001—Louis Runkel, J. Castree Williams W. H. B. Cotten, J. POLICY-HOLDERS AND THE SURPLUS.

AN INSURANCE CASE INVOLVING THE QUESTION OF THE DIVISION OF THE FUND.

Argument was heard and decision reserved by Justice Daly in the Supreme Court yesterday on a demurrer interposed to the complaint in an action brought by Emil Greeff, a policy-holder in the Equitable Life Assurance Society, to compel the society to pay him a balance of $7,087,388, which he claims from the surplus of the company on a fit-teen-year endowment policy which matured in April, 1897. Should the plaintiff be successful in his suit the Equitable would be compelled to dis tribute its whole surplus fund, amounting to $43,-000,000, among its policy-holders, and the same rule would apply to almost every other American life insurance company.

Green's policy matured in April last, and he re-

Greeff's policy matured in April last, and he received as a dividend from the surplus fund of the company, in addition to the amount dus him on the face of the policy, a sum of $3,332. He claims $11,019.38. W. B. Hornolower, on behalf of the company, said that this was the first action at law of this nature brought in the courts. Several actions in equity had been tried, and it had been finally decided by the Court of Appeals that a policyholder had no right to bring a suit against an insurance company for an accounting, that the directors of a company had the right to set aside such a surplus as they considered requisite for the safety of their company, and that all suits of such a character could only be brought by the Attorney-General of the State, or with his approval. The plaintiff in this suit contended that he had made a contract with the company under which he was to receive a certain share of the net surplus, and that he was therefore entitled to more than the amount paid him.

Counsel said that this surplus was really a safety fund, and that the plaintiff could have no right to the amount claimed, as, if his contention were correct, every policy-holder who had ever had a policy could claim his share in this surplus, though it had steadily accumulated from $5,000,000 in 1882 to its present sum.

D. W. Richards, for the plaintiff, argued that the ceived as a dividend from the surplus fund of the secumulated from $8,000,000 in 1882 to its present sum.

D. W. Richards, for the plaintiff, argued that the charter of the defendant company provided that the net surplus was to be divided among the policyholders, and that during the term for which the plaintiff's policy ran he had paid his share of the plaintiff's policy ran he had paid his share of the accumulating surplus fund in premiums, and was entitled to his fair proportion of it. He said that Greeff never paid his premiums in order to accumulate a surplus fund for the benefit of future policy-holders.

Mr. Hornblower, in reply, said that there was no question that the directors of an insurance company had an undoubted right to apportion such a surplus fund as they thought fit.

A MIMIC MAINE EXPLOSION.

THIS THE LATEST FEATURE PLANNED BY THE CHARTER DAY CELEBRATORS.

The Committee on Plan and Scope of the Charter Day Celebration met at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yes-Day Celebration met at the Fifth Avenue Hotel yesterday afternoon, but no business was transacted. It was informally given out that the Naval Committee was planning to add to its long list of proposed special features by blowing up a mimic Maine in the Upper Bay.

It was also announced that a letter had been received by General James Grant Wilson, chairman of the Historical Committee, from Edmund Charence Stedman, in which the latter responds to the invitation to read a poem as part of the literary exercises of the celebration, and says he finds it a duty, as well as a pleasure, to accede to the request.

RICHMOND BOROUGH HAPPENINGS.

A rumor which could not be confirmed was circulated vesterday that the War Department had lated yesterday that the War Department had opened negotiations for the purchase of the A. L. King estate at Arrochat. The property adjoins the Fort Wadsworth reservations, and commands a fine view of Sandy Hook and the ocean. The Department officials attempted to purchase the land some years ago when the other properties near it were absorbed, but the deal fell through.

FE FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE KEYS OF COLOR FOR GUEST-ROOMS.

Most guest-rooms, lacking in individuality look cold and uninteresting. Yet they have wonderful artistic possibilities.

Is the room bright, but not sunny? Suppose you let brown be the color key.-Light brown walls; oak furniture (a perfect revel of simple and beautiful designs is here); soft, green draperies and a green covering for the divan at the bed's foot (our draperies and couch covers tell you what to choose).

Is the room cold? warm it with a combina tion of mahogany furniture and old rose hangings. Mahogany costs too much? Our mahogany finished furniture gives the same color, and just as graceful shapes.

Is the room sunny? try mahogany and blue. Is it dark? make it sunshiny with maple and yellow. Hangings, draperles, curtains, carpets, rugs
